CWT UK Celebrates Long-Service Employees

LONDON, July 14, 2009 — Carlson Wagonlit Travel (CWT) UK recently honoured its long-service employees during an evening at the Sofitel London St James. Above, Marie Edwards of CWT's Teesside business travel centre and Martin Saunders of the Holborn business travel centre, are recognised for 30 years of service by Andrew Waller, Executive Vice President, UK & Ireland (centre).

A total of 35 employees were honoured during the dinner for their service to CWT, ranging from 15 to 35 years. Sponsors of the evening's festivities included Accor, Lufthansa, SWISS and Avis.

"This occasion makes me immensely proud to be part of CWT and grateful to those whose commitment and unwavering customer focus have over many years contributed to building the company into what it is today – leading at the forefront of the business travel industry," said Waller.
