CWT UK & Ireland Recognises Staff Dedication in Awards Ceremony

LONDON, February 4, 2010 — Carlson Wagonlit Travel (CWT) UK & Ireland, a leading travel management company, recently honoured more than 60 employees for long service and special achievement during a dinner and awards ceremony in London. Pictured above is the management team from CWT's Holborn office, who won 'Best Location of the Year', accompanied by Andrew Waller, Executive Vice President, CWT UK & Ireland, (left) and Lyn Given, Director of Traveller & Transaction Services, CWT UK & Ireland (centre).

For their long service, 46 employees were recognised, ranging from 15 to 30 years with the company. An additional 10 individuals and three teams were welcomed on stage to accept achievement awards, based on their outstanding performance over the past year.

"It is our employees' unwavering dedication to our clients that makes the difference, particularly in a year that was the most challenging any of us have seen," said Andrew Waller. "We are immensely proud to honour those who have contributed so much. It is the people within CWT that set us apart."
