CWT Meetings & Events on Stand 20 at Business Travel & Meetings Show

LONDON, February 9, 2010 — CWT Meetings & Events, a division of the leading travel management company Carlson Wagonlit Travel (CWT), will be showcased on Stand 20 during the Business Travel & Meetings Show 9-10 February in London. CWT is the only travel management company to have a separate stand devoted to meetings and events (M&E) at the show.

“Travel managers who have strategically integrated their M&E and business travel programmes understand the power of savings,” said Alison Smith, Director of Business Development, CWT UK & Ireland. “CWT Meetings & Events has the strength of a global network coupled with local knowledge to unlock savings, drive creativity and enhance visibility for its clients.”

M&E continues to be a strategic priority for CWT and 2010 is off to a strong start with a greater number of enquiries and projects. CWT Meetings & Events is currently expanding its team to handle new business.

Worldwide, CWT Meetings & Events operates in 40 countries with more than 650 M&E specialists. CWT’s strength lies in its global footprint and ability to negotiate on clients’ behalf. CWT achieves average savings of 15% for M&E clients in the UK.
