

Carlson Wagonlit Travel UK Completes New Senior Management Line-Up

- as Peter Hannaford joins as Director of Corporate Account Management UK-

June 05 2006 – Representing the final appointment in a series of senior management moves at CWT in the UK, Peter Hannaford joins as Director of Corporate Account Management UK, responsible for overseeing the development of programmes and solutions for customers in the UK.

Hannaford brings over twenty years experience in the travel industry to CWT most recently with Delta Air Lines where he was Regional Director, Strategic Sales EMEA, responsible for over $500 million in revenue. Throughout his career, which also includes British Airways and Emirates, Peter has focused on key corporate customers and brings to CWT's new senior line-up a detailed knowledge of sophisticated relationship management.

The new senior team has been restructured to reflect CWT's strategy for increased and aggressive growth and other recent appointments include Ed Cresswell as Director of Sales and Jennifer Charlton as Director of Business Development UK

On announcing the final member of the new team Executive Vice President UK, Andrew Waller, commented:

"Peter brings with him critical experience and knowledge of how to further improve our ability to anticipate, and respond to the demanding needs of our growing portfolio of international corporate clients. Having managed a variety of key cross-border relationships at Delta, I'm delighted to welcome him to CWT at such an exciting time for the business."

"CWT has some of the best people and staff retention in the business and, together with Peter's appointment, I am confident that our newly-formed management team will provide the added leadership and direction to achieve our ambition for continued aggressive growth in the UK market."
