Carlson Wagonlit Travel UK Appoints New Chief Financial Officer

LONDON (JUNE 17, 2008) – Carlson Wagonlit Travel UK (CWT UK), the leading travel management company has announced the appointment of Alan Donald as its new Chief Financial Officer UK, effective immediately.

Bringing with him over twenty years of financial experience, Alan joins CWT UK from Menzies Aviation where he most recently held the position of chief financial officer; this followed four years at Cigna International as CFO for their European operations. He also brings international experience gained by working with BUPA, as well as with insurance broker Willis Corroon in the US before transferring back to the UK to become corporate finance manager supporting M&A activity globally.

Alan said: "I am pleased to join CWT UK at such an interesting time. Many companies are focused on controlling their travel related costs, they are turning to their TMCs for assistance, and there is a huge opportunity for us to demonstrate our capabilities."

On announcing the new member of the team Executive Vice President UK, Andrew Waller, commented:

"I am delighted to welcome Alan to CWT UK, he brings with him vital experience and knowledge that will enable us to achieve continued growth in the UK market and further improve our ability to anticipate and respond to the needs of our growing portfolio of clients."
